

Page Denied

Executive Registry

84-

071

1/10/84 13:00

NATIONAL BIPARTISAN COMMISSION ON CENTRAL AMERICA REPORT
- ADMINISTRATION RESPONSE PUBLIC DIPLOMACY ACTION PLAN

PHASE I

A. Jan. 11

President make brief announcement with members of the Commission present just after submission of report.

Suggested themes:

The Commission has performed a very difficult task and the President thanks the members on behalf of all Americans. Stress long and arduous hours of work.

The U.S. Government will be studying the report and The President will comment on the substance as soon as possible.

Emphasize bipartisanship, diversity and intellectual distinction of members (have Robert Strauss and Lane Kirkland standing near the President along with Kissinger).

Use language along these lines, "From what I've heard today, I think that the Commission has understood the challenges before it and that we will be able to live very comfortably with these recommendations.

B. Period Between Submission of Report and Announcement of Reaction by the Administration:

NBCCA Plan-

-- The NBCCA has proposed that the media be given copies of the report prior to submission, but embargoed until after submission. After meeting with the President and submitting the report (with photo opportunities) the Commission will meet first with the domestic press and then with the foreign press. Each member of the Commission will then meet with the media as he chooses, and Chairman Kissinger and other members will go on talk shows.

Executive Registry

35,638

1/10/84 13:00

NATIONAL BIPARTISAN COMMISSION ON CENTRAL AMERICA REPORT
- ADMINISTRATION RESPONSE PUBLIC DIPLOMACY ACTION PLAN

PHASE I

A. Jan. 11

President make brief announcement with members of the Commission present—just after submission of report.

Suggested themes:

--- The Commission has performed a very difficult task and the President thanks the members on behalf of all Americans. Stress long and arduous hours of work.

--- The U.S. Government will be studying the report and The President will comment on the substance as soon as possible.

--- Emphasize bipartisanship, diversity and intellectual distinction of members (have Robert Strauss and Lane Kirkland standing near the President along with Kissinger).

Use language along these lines, "From what I've heard today, I think that the Commission has understood the challenges before it and that we will be able to live very comfortably with these recommendations.

B. Period Between Submission of Report and Announcement of Reaction by the Administration:

NBCCA Plan-

-- The NBCCA has proposed that the media be given copies of the report prior to submission, but embargoed until after submission. After meeting with the President and submitting the report (with photo opportunities) the Commission will meet first with the domestic press and then with the foreign press. Each member of the Commission will then meet with the media as he chooses, and Chairman Kissinger and other members will go on talk shows.

Executive Registry

35,639

Page Denied

Next 4 Page(s) In Document Denied